Two Handsome Entertainments on Capitol Hill Yesterday.

A Tea for a Pretty Debutante and an Evening Reception-Personal Notes of Interest.

The largely attended tea given yesterday afternoon by Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Bayne at their attractive home on Capitol Hill introduced to their friends one of the prettiest debutantes of the season in the charming person of their eldest daughter, Miss Bayne. Mrs. Bayne, who extended to every guest the most cordial of welcomes, was handsomely gowned in pink bengaline trimmed with black velvet and lace. The debutante, who stood next her, looking just as pretty as the flowers she carried, was dressed in white-striped chiffon made with girlish simplicity and becomingness. Dr. Bayne and the young ladies who assisted in receiving, Miss Breckinridge, Miss Wheeler and Miss Dimmick of Scranton, Pa., were the pleasing guides for the visitors from the drawing room to the dining room, where a tastefully and abundantly laid table was the special attraction. All the rooms were decorated with vases of fine roses and quantities of smilax. In the company were representatives of the oldest families in the District, especially of the medical fraternity and of the army families.

Among these present were Gen. and Mrs. J. C. Breckinridge, Gen. and Mrs. Ruggles, Gen. and Mrs. Sternberg, Mrs. Cabell and Miss Cabell, Miss Condit-Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Breckinridge, Gen. and Mrs. Mrs. C. R. Breckinridge, Gen. and Mrs. Shields and Miss Shields, Mr. and Mrs. Goodfellow, Dr. and Mrs. Tabor Johnson, Dr. G. L. Magruder, Dr. J. L. Toner, Mrs. Whittemore, Dr. and Mrs. Mallam, Mr. and Miss Wainwright, Capt. and Mrs. Howe, Capt. and Mrs. Chase, Mrs. Heiner and Miss Heiner, Lieut. Gordon Heiner, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Wallace, Lieut. and Mrs. Capt. Dr. Cabell. Dr. and Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Wallace, Lieut. and Mrs. Cummings, Dr. Cabell, Dr. and Mrs. Childs, Mr. Murray Addison, Mrs. Cobb, Lieut. and Mrs. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. P. Godwin, Commander and Mrs. Reisinger, Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hoge and Mrs. and the Misses Sutherland.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Leighton gave

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Leighton gave a large reception last night at their fine home on Capitol Hill, and welcomed to it many of their friends. Palms and roses decked the rooms, and the drawing room mantels were banked with white roses and ferns. The wide hall, lined with mirrors entirely on one side, reflected again and again the passing guests. Garlands of smilax were looped across the mirrors. An or-chestra, stationed in the library, played throughout the evening. In the dining room, where the mantels were banked with ferns and scarlet poinsetta, an elaborate collation was served. Mrs, Leighton wore an elegant gown of white satin draped with lace, and assisting her in receiving was her sister, Miss Foss, in ivory silk and thread lace; Miss De Forrest, in white silk; Mrs. Steele, in blue velvet, and Miss Hurst, Miss Emory, Miss Rankin, Miss Swope and Miss Emory, Miss Rankin, Miss Swope and Miss Caldwell.

Among the guests were Senator and Mrs. Davis, Judge Lander, Judge and Mrs. Bingham, Mrs. John A. Logan, Maj. and Mrs. W. F. Tucker, Bishop and Mrs. Hurst, Col. and Mrs. A. T. CAUSED A DIPLOMATIC CHANGE

What Resulted From an Appeal to Capt. Picking for Protection. It has transpired that quite innocently, and, indeed, with the very best intentions, the United States government and Captain Picking, in command of the United Statec naval forces at Rio, have, in a measure, been responsible for a diplomatic change at that city. It seems that Mello, the insurgent naval chief, while in the bay of Rio, seized the Argentine ship Dom Pedro III, laden with cartle, from Bueños Ayres. Mr. Arroyo, the Argentine minister at Rio, in the absence of any war vessels of his nation, appealed to Capt. Picking for protection. The captain referred the request to the authorities at Washington, and he was advised by them to render any assistance within his power. The matter coming to the attention of the Argentine government, however, Mr. Arroyo was recalled to Buenos Ayres on the ground that his application was premature or unnecessary, the case, it was argued by the Argentine officials, being one in which Brazii could have been calling for the interference of armed forces. Mr. Arroyo has served his country as minister to Chile, Bolivia and Austria, as well as to Brazil.
